

Library Hours and Special Closings Policy

It is the responsibility of the Library's Board of Trustees and the Director to provide quality service on as many days as possible within budgetary limits.

Library hours will be set in accordance with Library of Michigan standards as will best serve the community and as funds are available.

Library hours will be posted in a manner visible to the public during open and closed times.

The Library will be closed on designated holidays during the year.

Additional closing days throughout the year may take place at the request of the Director and with the approval of the Library Board.

In the event of an emergency situation, the Library may be closed by the Director
